MaxiSys Series System Program V2.21 2016-11-23

1. Added support for automatic update.

2. Added support for displaying vehicle makes and models by their usage frequency on the diagnotics interface.

3. Changed the view mode of videos and PDF files in the Training section to the online view mode and improved user experience.

4. Added support for backing up the latest management program version.

5. Added a Decline option for the disclaimer statement.

6. Improved the way to download large upgrade packages of vehicle models.

7. Fixed an issue that caused system errors or system reset during the app update and installation.

8. Fixed an issue that sometimes prevented the system from switchover during the app update and installation.

9. Improved the main interface of updates.

10. Fixed a problem that the download speed rate and the remaining download time were zero when remote programming files were downloaded.

11. Improved the datalog upload mechanism by defining that the Reason for Sending blank must be filled in so that questions could be confirmed and replied faster.

12. Added support for fuzzy search for vehicle makes.

13. Added market options in the Setting menu .

14. Added support for automatically downloading the latest firmware once the device is connected to network.

15. Added support for a progress bar of TPMS programming.